

FDA Warning Letters Database for Dietary Supplements

---

|                                 |                                                                                                                                                                        |
|---------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Issue Date                      | 02/09/2015                                                                                                                                                             |
| Manufacturer                    | A2Z Industries, LLC                                                                                                                                                    |
| Product Name                    | Blockade on Cycle Defense, EPI 2A3A, Halo V, Post Cycle 3X, Protex                                                                                                     |
| Ingredient(s)                   | Selenium, Synthetic steroids, Vitamin B6                                                                                                                               |
| Issuing Office                  | Los Angeles District Office                                                                                                                                            |
| Potential Violation(s)          | Misbranded:Contact Information, Misbranded:Supplement Facts, Misbranded:Unapproved New Drug                                                                            |
| Regulations Cited for Violation | 21 CFR 101, 21 CFR 101.105(a), 21 CFR 101.12(b), 21 CFR 101.36(b)(1), 21 CFR 101.36(b)(2)(i)(B), 21 CFR 101.4(h)(1), 21 CFR 101.5, 21 CFR 101.9(b), 21 CFR 101.9(b)(2) |
| Response Letter Posted          | No                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Link to FDA Warning Letter      | http://www.fda.gov/CECI/EnforcementActions/WarningLetters/ucm433809.htm          |
| FDA's Warning Letter Number     | WL#08-15                                                                                                                                                               |